

Ultimate Career Coach

Overview

What this Course Is

This is the ultimate complete coaching package. It covers your resume, what jobs you should be pursuing, interview skills, networking, and more.

Steps

1. You will send an email to your Career Coach pro with the following information:
 - a. The top jobs that interest you
 - b. What your employment/school status is
 - c. Any other relevant information
 - d. Resume attached to email
2. Your Career Coach will give you an in-person interview in New York. If you cannot come in person this will be a live Skype video interview. For one hour following the interview you will receive interview and resume feedback.
3. You will then get five additional one hour voice Skype sessions with your coach which will cover what jobs you should be targeting, help you revamp your LinkedIn profile, and finalize your resume.
4. Your coach will help you cultivate a single project which will showcase a strong skill you possess and demonstrate it on resume and explain it in-person.
5. Your coach will help educate you on the “art” of networking. Together you will draft cold and warm messages on LinkedIn and arrange some coffee meetings with industry professionals.
6. Resume will be mailed back and forth until your Coach deems it fit for job applications.
7. You will then have a final ½ video Skype interview with a final email of detailed feedback on your performance.

Most Important: Your coach is will be your personal job search mentor until you find a job or 6 months from your sign-up date.
