

Ultimate Career Coach

Overview

What this Course Is

This is a long-term six-month complete coaching package. It covers your resume, what jobs you should be pursuing, interview skills, LinkedIn profile, and more.

Prerequisites

None

Steps

1. You will send an email to your Career Coach pro with the following information:
 - a. The top jobs that interest you
 - b. What your employment/school status is
 - c. Any other relevant information
 - d. Resume attached to email
2. Your Career Coach will give you an in-person mock interview in New York. If you cannot come in person this will be a live Skype video interview. For one hour following the interview you will receive interview and resume feedback.
3. You will then get four additional one hour video Skype sessions with your coach which will cover what jobs you should be targeting, help you revamp your LinkedIn profile, and finalize your resume.
4. Resume will be mailed back and forth until your Coach deems it fit for job applications.
5. You will then have a final ½ video Skype interview with a final email of detailed feedback on your performance.
6. The time commitment from your coach (including the Skype sessions) is six months. During that time you can email or have phone conversations with your coach as needed.

Monthly payment plans are available for this coaching package only.
